MEMBER SPOTLIGHT

Jon and Elke Flachsbarth

We would like to introduce two of our favorite wine club members - Jon and Elke Flachsbarth, who have been Elevation Ten Club members since May of 2013. Jon and Elke met in an AOL chatroom back in August 1997, and met in person for the first time on December 25, 1997 in San Francisco, California. They got married in October of 2001 and have been going strong for over 14 years! Elke, (a devoted beer drinker), was thankfully converted by Jon into an avid lover of wine!

When they are not enjoying time in our wine club lounge with friends, Jon and Elke are hard at work in their professional careers. Jon is a Mortician/Deputy Coroner for Butte County, and Elke works for a leading manufacturer in the packaging industry as a Corporate Traffic Manager.

Some of Jon and Elke's favorite things to do include, enjoying wine with friends and exploring the beautiful state of California, as well as many other states in their newly purchased fifth wheel.

Jon and Elke love all Elevation Ten wines, however their absolute favorite is the 2012 Proprietor's Blend with a close second being the 2012 Zinfandel. To say this couple is the life of the party is an understatement! We thoroughly enjoy when this couple comes to visit us at the tasting room, and we encourage you to introduce yourself to them when you see them in the wine club lounge - they give free hugs!

Sacramento River Delta Grown - Proud Partners

Elevation Ten is pleased to be a new member of the Sacramento River Delta Grown Agritourism Association. This organization started in 2012 with its mission to raise awareness of production agriculture in the Sacramento River Delta and to support the local family farms. In this marketing effort, the Delta Farm and Winery Trail highlights these hidden gems along California Scenic Highway 160, which are so close to the urban areas of Elk Grove, Sacramento, and even the Bay Area. The scenic river drive allows visitors to immerse themselves in the natural resources of the Delta and the rural life of quaint, historic Delta towns. The yearly Farm & Winery Guide and the SacRiverDeltaGrown.org website helps visitors travel to these generational family farms and wineries to experience the rural agricultural life through farm tours, wine tastings, farm equipment displays, and fresh produce including pears, tomatoes, melons, squash, stone fruits, sweet corn, zucchini, beans, eggs, and organic. Summertime is harvest time in the Delta for most produce. Annually the 2nd weekend in August, the Wine & Produce Passport Weekend, is a special weekend full of extra activities and specials, to help bring more visitors out to these family farms and wineries. The Sacramento River Delta Grown Agritourism Association also attends several events, including Sac Farm to Fork Festival, Courtland Pear Fair, and the California State Fair, showcasing the Delta produce and wines. Elevation Ten is dedicated to supporting our local Delta farmers and agriculture within the Clarksburg region. For more information on the farm and winery guide visit their website at www.sacriverdeltagrown.org.
